TEMPORARY RESTRAINING
ORDER AND ORDER TO SHOW
CAUSE WHY A PRELIMINARY
INJUNCTION SHOULD NOT ISSUE

Case No. 2:20-cv-00279 DBB

Judge David Barlow

---

This matter comes before the court on the United States' Motion for an Ex Parte Temporary Restraining Order and Order to Show Cause Why a Preliminary Injunction Should Not Issue ("Motion") to restrain Defendants MY DOCTOR SUGGESTS LLC (d/b/a My Health Supplier), GP SILVER LLC, and GORDON PEDERSEN from engaging in ongoing violations of the federal criminal laws. The court has considered the United States' Motion and Memorandum in Support, the exhibits filed therewith, and the supporting declaration and documentation, together with the argument of counsel. Based upon the foregoing, the court makes the following findings:

1. This court has jurisdiction over the subject matter of this case, there is good cause to believe that it will have jurisdiction over all the parties hereto, and venue in this district is proper.
2. There is good cause to believe that Defendants have violated and are likely to continue engaging in acts or practices that violate 18 U.S.C. § 1341 (mail fraud) and 18 U.S.C. §

1343 (wire fraud) and that the United States is therefore likely to prevail on the merits of this action.

3. There is good cause to believe that immediate and irreparable harm will result from Defendants' ongoing violations of 18 U.S.C. § 1341 (mail fraud) and 18 U.S.C. § 1343 (wire fraud) unless Defendants are restrained and enjoined by order of this court.

4. There is good cause to believe that the harm to Defendants' business during the pendency of the TRO is greatly outweighed by the threat to the health and safety of individuals relying on Defendants' products and the representations regarding those products and to the public generally.

5. Injunctive relief to protect the public interest is expressly authorized by 18 U.S.C. § 1345. The public's interest in receiving accurate medical information, in health-related advertising that is not false, and in health and safety are all supported by this TRO.

6. Pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 65(b), the United States has demonstrated that immediate and irreparable injury, loss, or damage will result if notice is given to the Defendants prior to entering this order.

7. No security is required of any agency of the United States for issuance of a temporary restraining order. Fed. R. Civ. P. 65(c).
